

HUMBOLDT NORMATIVITY CONFERENCE 2020
(online, 7-9 December)

All sessions will be held online.
All times are Central European Time (UTC+1).

Monday, 7 December 2020

- 14:00-14:10 Welcome, Introduction, Technical Matters
14:10-15:25 Teemu Toppinen and Vilma Venesmaa (Helsinki): How Expressivists Can Explain Our Knowledge of Normative Supervenience
15:45-17:00 Woo Ram Lee (Essen): Two Roles for Reasons: Cause for Divorce?
17:20-18:50 Anandi Hattiangadi (Stockholm): Normative Subject Matters and How to Fix Them (keynote address)

Tuesday, 8 December 2020

- 12:00-13:15 Moritz Schulz (Dresden): Why Maximize Expected Value?
13:35-14:50 Emily Colleen McWilliams (Duke Kunshan): In Favor of Epistemic Reasons for Action
16:10-17:25 Pekka Väyrynen (Leeds): Normative Explanation and the Structure of Moral Theories
17:45-19:00 Eric Sampson (Washington, D.C.): Intellectual Courage in the Face of Intractable Normative Disagreement

Wednesday, 9 December 2020

- 12:00-13:15 Alison R. Toop (Leeds): The Role of a Romantic Partner
13:35-14:50 Andreas Brekke Carlsson (Lillehammer): Deserved Guilt and Blameworthiness over Time
16:10-17:25 Nader Shoaibi (Indianapolis): Veritism and the Normativity of Logic
17:45-19:15 Geoffrey Sayre-McCord (Chapel Hill): On a Theory of a Better Morality and a Better Theory of Morality (keynote address)

Contact and registration: normativity2020@hu-berlin.de (registration deadline: 30 November 2020)

Information on how to access the online sessions will be sent out to all registered participants shortly after the registration deadline.

Organisers: Jan Gertken, Benjamin Kiesewetter, Thomas Schmidt
Department of Philosophy, Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin

This is the fifth conference in a series of yearly Humboldt-Southampton Normativity Conferences, alternating between Humboldt University in Berlin and Southampton University in the UK.