HUMBOLDT NORMATIVITY CONFERENCE 2022

Monday, 5 September 2022

14:00	Coffee
14:30-14:40	Welcome and introduction
14:40-16:00	Conor McHugh (Southampton): Reasons to Suspend Judgment, Good Reasoning, and Fittingness
16:00	Coffee
16:30-18:00	Sarah McGrath (Princeton): Ethics: How Hard Can It Be? (keynote)
19:30	Dinner

Tuesday, 6 September 2022

10:00-11:20	Daniele Bruno (Potsdam): A Perspectivist Treatment of Rights
11:20	Coffee
11:40-13:00	Stina Björkholm (Stockholm): Dynamic Descriptivism and the Practicality of Moral Language
13:00	Lunch
14:40-16:00	Samuel Dishaw (Harvard): Moral Understanding Between You and Me
16:00	Coffee
16:30-18:00	David Enoch (Hebrew): Backgrounding Agent-Relativity (keynote)
19:30	Dinner

Wednesday, 7 September 2022

10:00-11:20	Sophie Keeling (Barcelona): Controlling our Reasons
11:20	Coffee
11:40-13:00	Pekka Väyrynen (Leeds): Make It Right
13:00	Lunch
14:40-16:00	Christine Tiefensee (Frankfurt/M.): Through Thick and Thin: Seamless Metaconceptualism
16:00	Coffee
16:30-17:50	Rowan Mellor (Toronto): Joint Ought

Organisers: Benjamin Kiesewetter and Thomas Schmidt

Department of Philosophy, Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin

Contact and registration: normativity2022@hu-berlin.de (registration deadline 1 September 2022)

This is the seventh conference in a series of yearly Humboldt-Southampton Normativity Conferences, alternating between Humboldt University in Berlin and Southampton University in the UK.