

4th Humboldt-Princeton Graduate Conference 2014

13th – to 15th August 2014

Unter den Linden 6, Room 2103

Preliminary Schedule

	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
	10.00 – 10.15: Welcome
10.15 – 11.40	Paper and comment tba	Jack Woods (PU): The Normative Force of Promising Comment by Simon Gaus (HU)	Astrid Schomäcker (HU): Conceptual Change and The Explanatory Gap Comment by Mark Harris (PU)
	Coffee	Coffee	Coffee
12.00 – 13.25	Domenica Romagni (PU): The Axiomatic Method As Used by Euclid and Spinoza Comment by Marco Santi (HU)	Simon Gaus (HU): Is Random Selection Inherently Fair? Comment by Jack Woods (PU)	Hilkje Haenel (HU): The Concept Rape as an Ameliorative Project Comment by tba
	Lunch	Lunch
3.15 – 4.40	Mattia Mantovani (HU): From Epistemology to Dissections: Descartes' Two-Step Argument for a Distinction Between Primary and Secondary Qualities. Comment by Daniel Wolt (PU)	Daniel Wolt (PU): Mental Illness and Aristotle's Ethics: 'Beastliness' in Nicomachean Ethics VII Comment by Mattia Mantovani (HU)
	Coffee	Coffee
5.00 – 6.25	Marco Santi (HU): Subjective Validity' and Subjective Grounds for Assent: Kant's Judgments of Perception in the Context of his Logic Comment by Domenica Romagni (PU)	Mark Harris (PU): Emotions as Felt Experiences of Value, and the Problem of Object-Directedness Comment by Astrid Schomäcker (HU)
	Dinner	Dinner

Each slot comprises 30-40 min. for the talk, 10 min. for the comment, and 30-40 min. for discussion