

3rd Humboldt-Princeton Graduate Conference in Philosophy

5th - 7th August 2013

Unter den Linden 6, Room 3103

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday
	10.00 – 10.15: Welcome
10.15 – 11.35	Daniel Wodak (PU): Conventional Oughts and Obligations Comment by Roland Hesse (HU)	Leonard Menges (HU): Should We Stop Blaming Wrongdoers? Comment by Daniel Wodak (PU)	Mark Harris (PU): The Puzzle of Negatively Moving Music: Levinson and Imagined Self-Expression Comment by Leonard Menges (HU)
	Coffee	Coffee	Coffee
12.00 – 13.20	Roland Hesse (HU): Consequentialism and the Good Comment by Maddy Kilbride (PU)	Hannah Altehenger (HU): Failing to Be Resolute as a Distinctive Rational Defect? Comment by Mark Harris (PU)	Domenica Romagni (PU): How Can Something Wrong Feel So Right? Comment by Sebastian Bender (HU)
	Lunch	Lunch	Lunch
3.00 – 4.20	Sebastian Bender (HU): Spinoza's Necessitarian Metaphysics Comment by Domenica Romagni (PU)	Simon Gaus (HU): Undermining Genealogical Information, Moral Realism and the Theory of Evolution Comment by Rachel Cristy (PU)
	Coffee	Coffee
4.45 – 6.05	Rachel Cristy (PU) Does Wine Have a Place in Kant's Aesthetics? Comment by Simon Gaus (HU)	Maddy Kilbride (PU): Is the Property of Being a Phoneme Represented in Perceptual Experience? Comment by Astrid Schomäcker (HU)
	Dinner Clärchens Ballhaus	Dinner Kopps

Each slot comprises 30-40 min. for the talk, 10 min. for the comment, and 30-40 min. for discussion.