

Thursday, 19 June 2008

18.15 – 19.45 Philip Kitcher (Columbia University of New York*)
(UL6, Room 2097) How Ethics Might be Naturalized
* Fellow am MPI für Wissenschaftsgeschichte Berlin

Friday, 20 June 2008

10.15 – 11.15 Kirsten Meyer (Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin)
Limited Altruism and Moral Progress

11.30 – 12.30 Tatjana Tarkian (Leipniz Universität Hannover)
Naturalizing Ethics: How far Can We Get?

12.45 – 14.00 Lunch

14.15 – 15.15 Bettina Schöne-Seifert (Westfälische Wilhelms-Universität Münster)
Disillusioning Ethics as Naturalistic: What's Left of Moral Motivation and of the Concept of Ethical Progress?

15.30 – 16.00 Thomas Schmidt (Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin)
Naturalistic Explanations and Moral Normativity

16.30 – 17.00 Coffee Break

17.00 – 18.00 Christoph Halbig (Friedrich-Schiller-Universität Jena)
Does Ethical Non-Naturalism Deserve a Second Hearing?

Saturday, 21 June 2008

9.15 – 10.15 Peter Schaber (Universität Zürich)
Altruism and Morality: A Non-Naturalist Account

10.30 – 11.30 Gerhard Ernst (Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität München)
A Different Kind of Naturalism

11.30 – 12.00 Concluding Discussion

Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin, Main Building, Unter den Linden 6, Room 2103.