GRADUATE WORKSHOP

Kant on Following Rules

June 27–28, 2016

Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin

Keynotes:

Konstantin Pollok (USC)

Clinton Tolley (UCSD)

This workshop explores the issue of normativity and rule-following in Kant's theoretical philosophy, with a special focus on his account of human knowledge and cognition.

What is the place of rule following in Kant's overall picture? How are the normative aspects of the rule-governed activities of the different cognitive faculties to be specified? What are the law-giving grounds of the epistemic norms?
